

MAINE DEVELOPMENT FOUNDATION

Leadership Unplugged

The Maine Development Foundation's Leadership Unplugged series is designed to be a conversation with Maine leaders around issues of economic importance.

MDF invites you to attend:

After the 2009 Legislative Session – the Expected, the Unexpected & the Unimagined

Thursday, February 5, 7:30 – 9:00 a.m.

Bowdoin College, Daggett Lounge, Thorne Hall, Brunswick

Our conversation will be with Chris Hall, Senior Vice President of Government Relations at the Portland Regional Chamber.

Chris will discuss the dynamics of the 2009 legislative session, including, the supplemental budget and biennial budgets, education reforms, tax reform, energy and transportation initiatives, and health care. He will address what we can expect from policy changes this year, and look ahead at 2010 from a business and community perspective and discuss how today's challenges will shape opportunities when the economy recovers.
